To explain and amend an Act of the First and Second Years of Her present Majesty, so far as relates to Fines and Penalties levied under the Revenue Laws in Ireland.

WH^{EREAS} an Act was passed in the first and second years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual levying of Fines, Penalties, Issues, Doodands and Amerciaments, and of forfeited Recognizances created in Ireland, and for the Application and Distribution thereof:"

Printable:
1 & 2 Vict.
c. 100.

And whereas doubts have arisen whether the said Act extends to and includes Fines and Penalties imposed under the Laws relating to the Revenues of Customs, Excise and Stamps, and it is expedient to determine such doubts, and to exempt such Fines and Penalties from the operation of the said recited Act;

WE it therefore Declared and Enacted, by The QUEEN's most Excellent MAJESTY, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, THAT nothing in the said recited Act contained, does or shall extend, or shall be deemed or construed to extend, to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, which has been or shall be incurred by or imposed upon any person whatsoever in Ireland, under any Act or Acts relating to the Revenues of Customs or Excise or Stamps respectively, or to the suing for, mitigating, levying, recovering or distributing any such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture; but that all and every such Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures shall be sued for, mitigated, levied and recovered and distributed under the powers, provisions, authorities and directions of the

the several Acts relating to the said Revenues respectively, and under and by the same persons, ways and means, and in the same manner in every respect as if the said recited Act had not been passed, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

In case of any Penalty, Fine or Forfeiture imposed under any Act relating to the Customs, Excise or Stamps, having been recovered under 1 & 2 Viet c. 99, the same to be paid over to the proper department

And be it Enacted, That in case any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture imposed on any person in Ireland, under any Act relating to the Revenues of Customs, Excise or Stamps, shall have been recovered under the provisions of the said recited Act, the same shall be paid over to the Commissioners of Customs, Excise or Stamps respectively entitled thereto, or to the proper Collector or Officer, to whom the same would have been payable in case the said recited Act had not been passed.

Act may be amended, &c.

And be it Enacted, That this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.
